Mr. J. R. INGERSOLL stated that this was not the case, but that not a member of that Committee dissented from the report. He called on its members present to rise and give their individual opinjons. Mr. Filtmore (Chairman) and Mr. Pick-ESS expressed their unqualified assent to it, and from a further statement of Mr. INGERSOLL, it appeared that it was adopted by an unanimous vote of the Committee—all being present except Mr. Marshall and that all gave their cordial assent except Mr. Wallace, who had some doubts about its propriety.

Mr. Aycnigg's report was finally received and ordered printed. Mr. WARREN, from the Committee on Claims, made a report urging the necessity of a clerk for that Committee. The House refused to allow it. by laying the report on the table.

On motion of Mr. McCLELLAN of N. Y. 10,000 extra copies of the annual report of the Commissioner of Patents were ordered printed.

Mr. Crawford made an inquiry of Mr. Chas. Brown of Pa. as to certain obnoxious expressions used by Mr. B. yesterday in reference to the election of Mr. C. as successor to Hon. Mr. Habersham, deceased.

Mr. Brown made a satisfactory explanation. An unusual number of reports of no general interest, were received from the various committees

PHILADELPHIA, Feb 10 -P. M. No animation at the Stock Board to day. There were n byers, of any account, present ;-all sellers. Our country produce market is rather dull to-day. There are ligt a limited number of wagons ranged along Second and Market streets, if I except those belonging to the Phila delphia hucksters (who manage occasionally to poke their wagons between those of the country people!) Poultry is scarce and high; fresh butter is held at 121 a 20 cents per pound; eggs 12 a 15 per dozen. Oar fish market is almost descried, there being none of the least account. There is coling worthy of note in our wholesale market. What the Pennsylvania Legislature is doing, would be a rather difficult matter for one to find out. Certain it is that the Locos are quarreling and abusing one another most confoundedly, divulging, occasionally, some startling acts of frand and corruption, which, in the end, will be productive of good to the people. If I except the bill abolishing our Criminal Court and the one cancelling the "Relief" Notes polling has been done for the benefit of the community. Robonest debts have been paid; neither has any provision been made for the same; and the interest upon the State Debt. as well as the claims of domestic creditors, has been suffered to pass dishonored !- In a word, Pennsylvania, for the time being, has virtually repudiated!

On Wednesday the nomination of Anson V. Parson, as Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia, was taken up in the Senate, and confirmed by a vote of 25 to 2 The nomination of William Porter, as an Associate Judge of Alleghany, was also confirmed.

What maky dogs these Porter folks! David R. Porter, Governor of the Commonwealth; James Madison Porter, President Judge of Easton, and in all probability Secretary of War: Win. A. Counterfeit $3 notes of the Union Bank, New-York, dated April, 1840, letter A, payable to the bearer 12 days from date, signed S. D. Day, Cashier, N. Bishop, President-vignette, Neptune-have been detected in this city. I have spoken upon several occasions of the Miller ex titement in this city, but to attempt a description is utterly impossible. The immense sa oon of the Chinese Museum which is estimated to hold 4500 persons, was literally crowded last night; and a scene occurred which came near repiliting in "the end" of several present. A cry was raised by some mischievous fellows that the building was on firethat" the time had come"-and various other exclamations, which instantly threw the whole essembly into consternation, and such screaming and shouting never before rent my ears! Several ladies fainted, in the grand rush made for the door, whilst others actually lesped out of the wisdows!

It was some time before quiet had been restored, when twas ascertained that the alarm was false and "the time" had not yet come.

Again, this morning, the Museum was thronged, and another excitement of a different character orgerred, in which George Mundy played complemently. During Miler's remarks, George interrupted him by propounding a question, which gave rise to tumultuous cries of " Miller!" Mandy!" " Turn tim out!' "Go it, George!" &c. A period of half an hour elapsed, before the multitude be ame gaet, after which Miller went on untiolested, until the hour cibreaking up the meeting, when there was a rush made to see the Prophet!

The sales to-day at the Board were rather limited. The FRIDAY, P. M sales of State Stocks reached about $40,000 Western Stocks to a tumble, Kentucky declining 2 per cent. and Ohio 12 per cent. City Fives improved 2. Fancies were rather better. Harlem declined \(\frac{1}{2}\).

The Bill market is firm at 5\(\frac{1}{2}\) a 5\(\frac{1}{2}\) for leading Sterling; Francs 5 45. Supply rather limited. The amount of South

The following stocks were sold at the Merchants' Exchange to-day: 20 shares Nudson Insurance Co, 96 per cent; 20 do 35; 20 do 85; 10 Maryland Mining Co $113 pr share. The bill to repeal the charter of our old tavorite, the Monmonth Bunk, passed its third reading in the New-Jersey House on Wednesday last. In relation to its history Mr. Conger stated, "It was a bank chartered in 1824, which failed soon afterward, and within a yea. or two in attempt has been made to revive it-not for the citizens of New-Jersey, but of New-York. In its statements to this House (which were not made until after the proper time had passed, and this bill had been introduced) the capital paid in was stated to be $25,000. He had discovered in conversation with its President that this capital of $25,000 was not paid in by the old stockholders, but only by some persons in Mew-York who had purchased the Bank; and the item of bills receivable' among the assets of $12,979, was in notes belong ng to the owners, and, being a part of this $25,000 capital and not discounted notes. There had been but one note discounted-of about $2000-and that not in Monmonth Co. but New-York." We understand that the last time it was galvanized it was done by fluid furnished by that eminent financier Mr. Beach, of the Sun newspaper. If we mistake not, the Cashier of the Monmouth is a relative of Mr. Beach. The Sun stated a day or two ago that by some "accident the redemption of the notes had been suspended for a day The "accident," we understand, was this Mr. Beach loaned the owners of the charter a certain amount of moamount of the notes. Finding, however, that the charte was about to be abolished by the Legislature, and trem bling for the security of his loan, he made several attempts to recover it, which were abortive. Whereupon, notes be gan to pour in upon the agency for redemption with most remarkable and fapleacant frequency. It was soon discovered that Beach had been putting various amounts of the notes deposited with him as collateral security in circulation, and about $800 of them had been redeemed in this way; whereupon the "accident" of refusing the redemption of any more occurred. The thing was settled by give ing Beach some security and making him disgorge the good

We copy the following from Thompson's Bank Note Re porter, It is an important movement, although we doubt fanything very favorable to the bond holders will result rom it. the Bank goes on swimmingly again. At least that is the story as we heard it.

It has been known to us for months past, that heavy hold ers of discredited state stocks were corresponding with each other, and collecting the opinions of the ablest lawyers in the country, with the view to institute suits against the states, and against the individual chizens, on dishonored state bon's. Such encouragement has been given that an agent was depatched to Europe, by the last steamer, to so-licit the co-operation of English, French and Dutch bond licit the co-operation of English, French and Dutch bond holders. It is in cottemplation to institute two suits before the proper tribunals; one against a non-paying state, and another against a citizen of a non-paying state. By some it is contended that every citiz-n's farm is liable for a judgeas comeaned that every citiz-a's farm is liable for a judge-ment against a state, and that states are corporations, ema-nating from the federal compact, and liable to be sued. Others counsel a shorter course, and contend that every citi-zen of a state is a party to the contract batween the state and the bond holder, and is liable individually on every bond the state rightfully owes. The most eminent counsel have been retained for the prosecution, and all that latent bave been retained for the prosecution, and all that talent and money can do will be done.

There is very general misapprehension of the amount of Kentucky Bonds issued, growing out of the neglect of the Treasurer of that State to include certain sums issued, for which the State holds an equal amount of assets. The debt s usually stated at $3,902,783, but in addition to this, $2,000,on have been issued to the Bank of Kentucky, and the Northern Bank of Kentucky, and $937,500 to the Board of Education and Sinking Fund, making a total of $6.840.283 The first amount is merely the amount issued for Improve mest purposes. The increase during the past year, is

THE ABDUCTION OF MRS. MILLER. - CASE OF WILLIAM P. BROWN .- Judge Hent yesterday read an opin ion in this case, in which he refuses the application for Mi Brown's discharge on bail. He dwells with much eloer right to protection even from a husband. Miller's conduct in compelling his wife to ride 20 miles, on a cold day, only in the dress which she had on in her bed-room, was alluded to in sefere terms; and if Miller's conduct was wrong, Brown is fully connected with it, having been a party the abduction. The Judge would be willing to admi the prisoner to bail were it not for the uncertainty which hangs over Mrs. Miller, whether she has gone South or abroad with her husband, or violence has been committed open her, even to murder. If she is safe, as asserted by Miller's connections, evidence can be adduced to that effec nd much of the difficulty set at rest. Application denied. CIRCUIT COURT .- Before Judge Kent.

POLICE OFFICE .- AN INDESTRIOUS THIEF .man named John Donovan was yesterday arrested by Officer Stephens on three several charges of larceny, as follows:-On the 26th September last, he stole a coat, vest and pantaloons, worth $25, from Daniel Maher, of No. 119 Beekman street. On the 12th October last, he stole a lady's cloth cloak, worth $12, from Mrs. Mary McKearn, widow, of 590 Cherry-street. On the 13th October, he is charged with having stolen $110, in bank bills and silver, from Mr John Hawkins, of 334 Cherry-street, where he boarded. He rose early, got the key from the pocket of Mr. Hawkins while he was in bed, unlocked a chest behind the bar, and took out a mahogasy box in which the money was, with which he fled. He was not seen thereafter notil yesterday, when he was arrested. To-day he was committed to an-

De Merritt was arres.ed last evening by Officers Relyea and Keltinger, charged with having, on the 6th, 7th and 8th of December last, obtained brushes of the value of $$14.73 from Reuben H. Towner, of No. 7 Liberty-street, by fraudulent and false pretences. The complaint of Mr. Towner stated that a man named John Scoble came to his store on the 5th Dec. and said he came from the store of Thomas Nelson & Co. No. 88 John-street, who wished to purchase brushes; that he (Tewner) went to the store on the 6th and asked for Mr. Nelson, when De Merritt said, "I am the man;" and that e proceeded to tell Mr. Towner that the firm were about to do a large business for cash-that they were concerned in a store connected with a large manufactory near Provi dence-that they had a large capital, and had been offered redits but would not receive them, wishing to pay cash. Mr. Towner-seduced by the representations of De Mercitt, whom he supposed to be Nelson-let him have the prushes, to be paid at sight in cash; but, after repeated alls, was put off from day to day, and was never paid, He subsequently ascertained that De Merritt had sent the brushes to the auction of Messrs. His two partners, Brown and Nelson, both also made affidavils against him; stating that they had been his dupes. Through Nelson, however, Mr. Towner received his goods et Messrs. Corlies, Haydock & Co. by paying the $100 advanced to De Merritt. Complaints were also preferred against De Merritt by Mr. J. Delano of 97 Water-street, and J. L. 9n the first of September arrived off the entrance of the river of Guayaquil, and despatched a boat to the town of Pona for a pilot. While heating up, meanwhile, with a slight breeze from the NE under easy sail toward the town, most unexpectedly and unfortenately struck the ground or a bank of hard sand, not laid down in my chart; in fact my a bank of hard sand, not late down in my chart; in fact my large Spanisi, plan of the bay and river indicated seven fathoms, mud, near the very spot where we struck.

As the bank is in the reute of vessels going to Puna for a pilot, I notice the bearings, and would mylvie all masters of vessels bound up the river, to anchor in front of Panta Ex-panola, at the head of Mola Bank, and send up for a pilot, for as yet the shoals have not been properly buoyed.

The above sheal is about half a mile in circumference, with hard sand. The shoalest part has five feet of water on it, and bears from Punta Mandingo S70E, and from Punta Espanola N35E per compass. Distance from the nearest land, 13 of a finite to 13 miles.
